

2017/2018 Email Release

We respect your privacy and we will not sell or share your e-mail address, physical address, phone number, or any other personal and financial information with any outside source. In connection with this engagement, we may communicate with you or others via email transmission. As emails can be intercepted and read, disclosed, or otherwise used or communicated by an unintended third party or may not be delivered to each of the parties to whom they are directed and only to such parties, we cannot guarantee or warrant that emails from us will be properly delivered and read only by the addressee. Therefore, we specifically disclaim and waive any liability or responsibility whatsoever for interception or unintentional disclosure of emails transmitted by us. All email attachments will be encrypted as much as our software allows.

The current administration and the IRS requires us to provide you a copy of form 9325 acknowledging the IRS's receipt and acceptance of your electronically filed tax return. By NOT providing your email address, you are declaring that you do not wish to receive this or any other documents electronically.

Your signature below approves the noted email and designates that we shall have no liability for any loss or damage to any person or entity resulting from the use of email transmission including any consequential, incidental, direct, indirect or special damages, such as loss of revenues or anticipated profits or disclosure or communication of confidential or proprietary information. This agreement expires one year from the signature date. We appreciate your confidence in us. Please call if you have questions.
